

With expertise in major transport infrastructure projects, Transia provides comprehensive advisory and training services in construction traffic management across all stages (Planning, Design and Delivery).

Examples of the types of professional services Transia offers is outlined below.

For further information about Transia's experience and services, please view our Capability Statement.

Helping you set your projects up for success...

PROJECT INCEPTION & PLANNING

- Advise on early construction & traffic staging development
- Advise on Contract & Project Scope Requirements
- Assess functional construction & traffic management considerations

TENDER

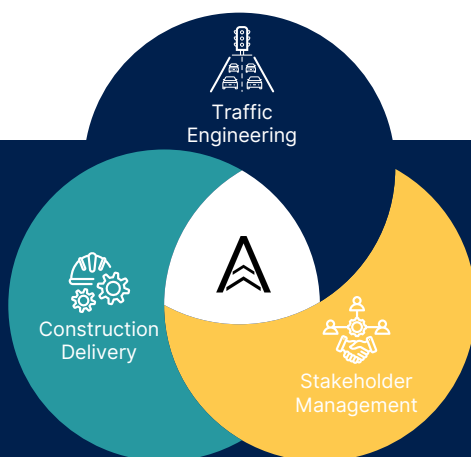

- Provide expert advice during Tender phase
- Assess construction delivery & traffic staging proposals
- Advise on technical traffic engineering & traffic management considerations
- Assess proposal costs
- Identify opportunities for innovation and/or alternative approaches

PROJECT DELIVERY

- Review Traffic Management Strategies & Traffic Management Plans
- Challenge construction methodologies & traffic staging proposals
- Provide technical & operational advice to Government
- Prepare briefing advice notes to assist internal communications
- Liaise with key stakeholders
- Respond & seek resolution to traffic issues & events
- Review & improve internal systems & processes

TRAINING

- Bespoke training to all levels of Government to provide insights & practical knowledge on delivering major transport infrastructure projects

Through integrating skills and expertise in three key areas of Traffic Engineering, Construction Delivery and Stakeholder Management, Transia helps Government clients to achieve better outcomes in safety, constructability and minimising disruption in the delivery of major transport infrastructure projects.

